THE CITY.

Revenue collections to-day, $19,015.27. Bank clearings yesterday, $616,073.67. Articles have been filed with the county clerk incorporating the A. O. H. Band Musical Protective union, with a capital stock of $1,000. The agent of Pat Gilmore's great military band is here trying to make arrangements for the band to play dur-ing Merchants' week, at the Coliseum.

It would be a splendid attraction. Sergeant Sigwart filed complaint against J. A. McCoy and Joseph Henry, railroad employes, charging that they allowed cars to stand on the Union Pacific crossing more than five minutes. The waterworks company Thursday paid $14,000 to the laborers employedat the company's works at Florence for services for the past two weeks. The company's settling basins at Florence will be completed the last of next week.

A telegram has been received by friends in the city announcing the death at Guthrie, I. T., of James M. Garvey. The body will be brought to Omaha and buried from the residence of his father, Thomas M. Garvey, Thirty-third and John S. Collins came into police court yesterday afternoon and said he thought William Cole, of 105 South Twentyeighth street, had stolen a $20 China tea set belonging to Mrs S A. Collins. A search warrant for the premises at 105 was issued.

Among the importations at the custom house yesterday were two cases of I. & R. Morley's ladies' and children's sanitary black hose by S. P. Morse & Co., who are the sole direct importers of these goods in Omaha, They will be placed on sale to-day.

The city physician turned Ed Lambert over to the county yesterday. Lambert was stricken down by the heat Tuesday afternoon and brought to the police station for treatment. When he recovered consciousness his reason was gone, and he has since shown signs of incurable insanity.

An Engine and Beer Wagon. A switch engine collided with one of Krug Brost, beer wagons at the Tenth street crossing of the Union Pacific Thursday. The driver was thrown to the ground, but the engineer brought his machine to a stand before any serious damage was done. Johnson's Cheek.

City Treasurer John Rush has caused the arrest of Thomas Johnson on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. Rush cashed a check for $15 for Johnson and afterwards found that Johnson had no funds in the bank on which the cheek was drawn.

Society News. A review of the doings of the polite society of Omaha and neighboring towns during the past week, will be found in to-morrow's BEE. Destroyed Library Files. The directors of the public library have been put to great annoyance by parties who mutilate the files of the newspapers kept in the library. Judge Savage, a member of the board, caused the arrest of H. H. Hoffman for cutting an article from a file of one of the papers Thursday. Hoffman pleaded guilty and was fined $2 and costs. Not Jimmy. J. H. Lindsey was tried before Judge Berka on the charge of having swindled J. P. Henderson, of the New York hotel, out of $30 on a board bill. The case was dismissed, Henderson admitting that he had agreed to allow Lindsey time to pay the bill. The Lindsey in the case is a picture peddler, and not Jimmy Lindsey, the puglist, as has been stated.

Not Ready Yet. Colonel E. M. Morsman, president of the express company, returned from New York yesterday. He was asked whether anything had yet been done towards commend ing work on the proposed new office of his company and said: "No, the plans are not quite completed and contracts will not be let for a few days. I can say to you, however, that we propose to push the matter as rapidly as possible."

Failed to Prosecute. The case against B. Weisman, charged by E. D. Bellis with procuring money under false pretenses, was dismissed from police court yesterday afternoon, the prosecutiou failing to appear. Weisman gave Bellis a check for $23 against an imaginary account in the Bank of Onnaha to square up a court judgment neld by Bellis against Weisman. Weisman and his brother settled the matter with Bellis and he agreed not to prosecute.

A "CON." MAN IN THE TOILS.

William McCormick Arrested For Working the Check Racket. William McCormick is a very tall, broadthoousdered man, wearing butternut clothes and a genial, back country smile. His talk is horsey, and on the subject of crops he is an expert. No one would suspect that his motives were other than good. But they are everything but good. William is a gay old confidence man, and these marks of association with honest toil are part of his make-up for business.

Two or three days ago he held up an old fellow named Novak and fleeced him to the tune of $30. Novak passed McCormick on the corner of Twelfth and Douglas yesterday afternoon, and, recognizing the old sharper, caught and held him until an officer came hurrying to the place. McCormick hadn't been in jail more than half an hour before an been in jail more than half an hour before an excitable little fellow with sharp eyes and a stubby grey beard rushed into police head-quarters with the intelligence that he had been robbed of a couple of hundred dollars down at the Union Pacific depot. He described the men who got the money, and the way they did it. They, two of them, were on hand to meet him. One learned his name and the other said to him a moment later: I say, Mr. Haley, going to ldaho. later: I say, Mr. Haley, going to Idaho, are you! Well, I'm going too, and I've got a lot of freight here in a car that I must pay charges on. "Here's this." and he dis-played a thousand dollar certificate; "that I'll leave with you if you'll let me have a couple hundred dollars for a few days." The trade was made, and the "con" man got all

The parties met next in the police station. When Griffin's story was told, McCormick was brought out.

"That's the man that got my money," velled the little man, making a dive for him. McCormick assured him that he was the vicini of a delusion, that he (McCormick) was a respectable farmer, etc., but Griffin was positive of his man, and is an excellent wit-ness for the state. Meantime Novak was dancing about in an eestacy of rage at his dancing about in an eestacy of rage at his loss, and joy at having captured the robber. Griffin had recently sold his farm in Turner county, Dakota, and was on his way to Haley, Idaho. An officer has been detailed to find McCormick's pal, who seems to have got the money. McCormick had only $4 when brought to the station, and when Novak saw the pile and realized that only so small an anount regarded of his precious small an amount remained of his precious $20, he burst into a paroxysm of tears and curses and refused to be comforted.

IMPORTED OATS. An Interesting Novelty Obtained by Mr. Tenhon.

Joe Tenhon has on exhibition at the Wabash corner a specimen of oats raised this year by William H. Sylvester, in Hall county, which not only surpasses anything of the kind yet produced, but has a history. Two years ago last spring Mr. Sylvester killed a blue crane, from the craw of which he took fourteen oat kernels. He plaated them and they have grown. He carefully preserved the seed thus obtained, and last year raised enough to sow half an acre this spring. The season was so favorable that from this small beginning ne has harvested forty bushels.

The remarkable feature of these oats lies in the fact that there is none other like them. They grow to an average height of six feet and have heads eighteen inches long. Pat Dunphy, a saloonkeeper at Grand Island, says he saw similar oats several years ago in South America, and is of the opinion that the blue crane must have imported them from that country.

In Sunday's BEE will appear, under the title "Sequestered Nooks," a graphic description of a number of suburban localities, ittle frequented, but of great interest to the overs of the romantic and peautiful.

THE ROIEL DEAL The Kitchens and Brainard Still Considering the Matter. Messrs. Brainard and Kittredge, the gentlemen who are negotiating with Kitchen brothers for a ten year's lease of the Paxton noter, have returned and will probably close the deal to day "My wife is so superstitious about doing anything on Friday," said Mr. Kittredge, that she warned me when I left Chicago not to sign the lease until Saturday. But I can't tell you whether we will do it then or not. The conditions may not suit us. Neither Mr. Brainard nor myself have read the document yet and until all parties have put their names to it, the trade cannot be considered

His Sixth Annual Arrest. Louis Thompson is an abbreviated annual. He reaches Omaha and gets into the city ail once a year, and stumps about on the remnants of legs cut off at the knees. His arms are very long and powerful, and his chest is a model for a gladiator, so that, despite his physical shortcomings, he is a bad man in a fight. He is a peddler of small notions and trinkets, and travels over a circuit comprising Omana, Denver, Kansas City and other western citities. Thompson's peculiar deformity makes him a constant recipient of charity, and he boasts that he never pays for anything not even a li-cense to peddic. This last fact insures his arrest with unfailing regularity. Yesterday was the occasion of his sixth annual arrest in Omaba.

A Celestial Riot. A Celestial row was cut short by the flight of the shorter man yesterday afternoon. Ung Chick Hock and Lee Chung were playing poker in a laundry on Teath street. Lee said Hock cheated, and Hock reached out and raked in the chips. This precipitated a riot, in which Lee's head crept under Hock's arm and was pounded fiercely. He broke away, and, with Chinese persistence, floored his opponent with a chair. Then articles of household use, such as flat irons, table legs, etc., were thrown about promiscuously until Lee headed for the station and swore out a warrant of arrest for Hock. Horsford's Acid Phosphate Makes Delicious Lemonade.

A Rejoinder to the Sensational Story Told in His Petition.

Mr. W. K. Kurtz, secretary of the Patrick Land company, was seen yesterday, and asked what he had to offer regarding Lighthali's suit against the company for $311,-

Said he: "Those who are acquainted with Lighthall will not give much credence to his story He is thoroughly irresponsible as I can prove by the many creditors he has in this city.

"I am thoroughly impressed with the belief," continued Mr. Kurtz, "that there is somebody back of him in instituting this suit. True, we gave Lighthail a contract to build us one mile of cable road, but, instead of complying with that contract, which we have in writing, [Mr. Kurtz produced a copy of the document], he laid a mile of motor track. However, we paid him $15,000 cash, and we have vouchers in our safe to show it. Subhave vouchers in our safe to show it. Sub sequently, we learned that he had no credit and could not give a bond. It was impossible for him to get a pound of iron, or a cross tie without our guaranteeing the pay for them. By some hook or crook, Lighthali got a pass last spring, went to New York and tried to back-cap us there, but the brokers kicked him out of their

Mr. Kurtz also stated that his corporation had a bond of the New York Central Trust company to build four miles of double cable track, and had it not been for the Johnstown disaster, which delayed its shipments of iron, the company would have been at work before

Where the Motor Companies Hang Awaiting To-day's Decision. The street railway companies are on the qui vive, as to-day it is expected that the decision in the Thirtieth street injunction case will be decided. This is the most important of any of the suits brought against each other by the companies, involving, as it does, the right of the Omaha Street Rallway company to run upon any streets whatever The point made is this: The motor people claim that by consolidating the late horse car company and the late Cable Tramway company, both forfeited their charters, a new company baving been formed. Both parties are confident that the result will be satisfactory to themselves. It was told a reporter by a gentleman who professed to be acquainted with the facts that Messrs. Poppleton and Pritchett, who have been acting as attorneys for the consolidated lines were no longer serving the company in that capacity, and that in their stead John L. Webster had been retained at an annual salary of $5,000. Mr. Frank Murphy, president of the company, however, denies this, and says that Messrs. Poppleton and Pritchett are still their attorneys, and that Mr. Wenster has been retained in one or two particular The motor company will scarcely have cars in operation before the 1st of August.

Catarrh

S a blood disease. Until the poison is expelled from the system, there can be no cure for this loathsome and dangerous maladyi. Therefore, the only effective treatments a thorough course of Ayer's Sarsaparilla — the best of all blood purifiers. The sooner you begin the better ; delagain dangerous.

"I was troubled with catarrh for over two years. I tried various remedies, and was treated by a number of physicians, but received no benefit until I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. A few bottles of this medicine cured me of this troublesome complaint and completely restored my health."—Jesse M. Boggs, Holman's Mills, N. C.

"When Ayer's Sarsaparilla was recommended to me for catarrh, I was inclined to doubt its efficacy. Having tried so many remedies, with little benefit, I had no faith that anything would cure me. I became emaciated from loss of appetite and impaired digestion. I had nearly lost the sense of smell, and my system was badly deranged. I was about discouraged, when a friend urged me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and referred me to persons whom it had cured of catarrh. After taking half a dozen bottles of this medicine, I am convinced that the calls were way of treating this that the only sure way of treating this obstinate disease is through the blood."—Charles H. Maloney, 113 River st., Lowell, Mass.

AT THIS TIME

Of the year people are looking for bargains, and all the advertising and blowing in newspapers will not sell any goods unless customers can be convinced that they are getting real bargains. The shrewd and careful buyer will note that the place which is selling at close prices in the busy season is likely to give the greatest values in the dull season of the year. In every one of our several departments are goods which must be closed out. A store like ours cannot afford to carry over stock from one season to another. It pays us better to sacrifice what there is left and begin every season with new goods. You can for a few dollars just now get greater values in clothing than you ever dreamed of. Broken lots, single suits, etc., are closed out regardless of cost or value. In the Furnishing Department we offer to-day:
